Dear Evanston Ecumenical Community Member:

With the recent purchase of Evanston-based Four Corners Travel by Travel 100 Group of Kenilworth, Evanston now has only one full-service travel agency, Intra World Travel & Tours, Inc. Founded 25 years ago, this family-owned and operated travel agency offers the experience of professionals who learned their trade in the airline industry. This experience enables Intra World to anticipate and meet all the travel needs of corporate, institutional, and leisure travelers.

Intra World is organizing a special familiarization (FAM) trip to the Holy Land for religious organizations in Evanston. An interreligious group of 26 are invited on this familiarization trip leaving on January 18, 2010.

Intra World's mission is to serve the community with integrity and to provide their customers with responsive and professional service on reliable airlines at competitive cost. Whether it is a first time visit, business travel, a pilgrimage, trekking, or visiting the game reserves, their level of expertise and service is something rarely found in today's travel industry. Since Intra World Travel and Tours was established in 1985, it has used its contacts and connections to build a special relationship with India and Israel

Another program from Intra World is its USA-India artist exchange program, with continuing educational trips to India. A 14-day business and leisure trip to India is planned on January 22, 2010. Call for information or visit web site www.intrawld.com. Northwestern University is one of Intra World's many corporate accounts. They service various departments and schools, including the prestigious Kellogg School of Business, the School of Mechanical Engineering, the African Studies Program, and the Transportation Department.

Unlike a mega-agency, Intra World Travel, has the scale, desire, and ability to offer each traveler genuine attention. Their clients are individuals, not itineraries. They know their preferences, objectives, and most importantly, their names.

Thank you for considering Intra World Travel.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Perman
Executive Director
